

10 Requirements - Android project

1. The program should start without any errors or crashes
2. The performance of our java application should be sufficient
3. The program should catch possible errors in exceptions
4. The program should be able to start in the following android versions >4.0
5. The program should be easy to use
6. The program should follow the MVC model
7. The program should have sufficient documentation/row comments within the .java files
8. The program files should follow the BSD license.
9. The program should be easy to expand and add new features.
10. The program should follow recommended android best practices regarding the programming style.